Fred Douglass and Sumner

NEW YORK, August 11.—A Washington special says that Fred Douglass denies the alleged slight as published by Sumner in regard to the President not inviting him to dine with the other San Domingo Commissioners at the White House. He expressed regret to Sumner at anything which ought to be felt keenly as hunter [illegible] and with the President; neither [illegible]

Texas Pacific Railroad

ST LOUIS, August 12.—Col Wm J Build a well known contractor leaves to-morrow for Long View and Fort Worth Texas. He has a contract for fifty miles of the Texas and Pacific railroad west of Long View. He will set 3 000 men at work at once. The section of sixty five miles between Shreveport and Long View is already built. There are three branches of this road to Memphis, Vicksburg and New Orleans that concentrate at that place. Col Tom Scott, Gen G M Dodge and Col John W Forney leave Council Bluffs August 20, for California to look after the interests of the road in that quarter. A surveying party left San Diego, July 15 and is now surveying the line eastward towards Texas.

Suicide at Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, August 12.—J H Block, a one legged soldier of the Thirty fourth Ohio, committed suicide in the cellar at the Delmonico saloon of which he was proprietor.

Pay for Colored Soldiers

WASHINGTON, August 12.—The War Department has issued regulations for the discovery, identification and payment of claimants for pay, bounty, prize money, etc, to colored soldiers, sailors, marines or other representatives now residing, or who may have resided in any State where slavery existed in the year 1860. BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From London

LONDON, August 12.—General Sherman visited the camp at Aldershott yesterday, and had a very pleasant reception from the officers.

The crew of the American yacht Sappho have been dismissed for insubordination.

Stanley was entertained at the Garrick Club last night.

The News discredits all the disquieting rumors about the progress of arbitration at Geneva.

From Dublin

DUBLIN, August 12.—The Catholics of Ireland are preparing to celebrate the anniversary of the passage of the Repeal Act. Leading Orange officers advise Orangemen not to interfere with the celebration.

Fire at Geneva

GENEVA, August 12.—One of the most extensive cotton factories in this city was destroyed to night. Loss estimated at 10 000 000 francs. Eight hundred operators are thrown out of employment.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, August 13.—The colored voters held quite a large meeting last evening. They denounced Greeley and Sumner and indorsed Grant.

The Chief of Police has issued an order directing the police to arrest and disarm all known hoodlums whenever found congregated on the streets and where liable to prosecution as vagrants to enter complaints against them.

Arrived—Ship Sacramento, from New York with merchandize, to George Howes & Co. She experienced very heavy weather and shipped so much water as to require pumping, lost her boats, and on the 4th of February her first officer J W Besson, a native of Marblehead, Massachusetts was washed overboard and drowned.

The estate of J W Britain, deceased is appraised by the officers appointed for the purpose at $1 120 0[illegible], of which over $450,000 is in real estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 12.—The Chief of Police in his annual report congratulates the city on a decrease in crime as evidenced by the number of arrests, the complete breaking up of lottery ticket sellings, and the closing up of all the gambling houses, after the gamblers had paid fines to the extent of $10,000 into the city treasury. Referring to hoodlumism he says: "There exists however one evil which I mention with regret. It is the disposition on the part of many young men and lads to commit acts of violence and mischief and in brutality and cowardice frequently go together, the victims of their violence have usually been those whose voice was silenced in our courts and whose ignorance of our language and peaceable disposition were accepted as an invitation to the attack. The possession and use of deadly weapons by those whose passions and prejudices are strong and whose judgment is immature and unripe has produced much mischief and threatens much more. The police are doing what they can to check and resist this wrong but unless supported by public opinion and assisted by the citizens at large, they may labor long and hard before the evil is suppressed."

Hon W D Kelley of Pennsylvania is quite surprised at the report which has reached here from the East that he has come out for Greeley. He speaks for Grant at Platt's Hall to-morrow night.

Representatives of different lodges of the Improved Order of Red Men met to-day and agreed upon a plan for the establishment of a mutual benefit society.

Plantamour's predicted comet is not yet telegraphed.

The steamer Idaho, from Honolulu is also slightly overdue.

Arrived—Steamer Ajax, Portland.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES

Twenty-six Persons Poisoned

CHESTER, N. C., August 13.—Jim Johnson was arrested yesterday charged with an attempt to poison a party on the occasion of the commencement of Rev [illegible] Academy [illegible] the [illegible] instant. The entire party of twenty six including a number of young ladies were seized with symptoms of poisoning after eating ice cream which Johnson had prepared. None have died yet but the physicians say that several will [illegible]. The community threaten to lynch Johnson.

Political

NEW ORLEANS, August 13.—Pinchback's Republican Convention held a stormy session last evening. General Hugh Campbell spoke favoring an alliance with the Liberals and indorsing Greeley and stating that if the motion looking to that action failed he would withdraw from the Convention. The proposition to fuse with the Liberals was lost by a vote of [illegible] to 1 5, when Campbell President of the Convention, with 8 members withdrew. Colonel George W Carter also declared for Greeley. Pinchbeck declared that the Republican Government in Louisiana could only be led under the leadership of Grant and in a long speech favored the election of Grant. The Pinchbeck party will now fuse with the Custom house Republicans.

New York News

NEW YORK, August 13.—A private telegram from Rome to Bishop McCloskey announces the appointment of Rt. Rev William Henry Elder Bishop of Natchez to be Archbishop of Baltimore, to succeed the late Archbishop Spaulding.

There was an excitement on Staten Island over the arrival yesterday of a Spanish war ship with yellow fever on board. Strict quarantine will be maintained and it is hoped the scourge will not reach the city.

The crew of the ship Henry mutinied last night in the harbor. The mate shot one man in the wrist and the harbor police arrived just in time to prevent the men from murdering the mate, by arresting them all and bringing them ashore.

WASHINGTON CITY

Murder—Cabinet Meeting

WASHINGTON, August 11.—Samuel W Cheesler of Maine was fatally shot yesterday afternoon by a desperado named Barney Woods. Woods was arrested after firing an ineffectual shot at Lieut Grose of the police force who made the arrest.

President Grant leaves to-morrow for Washington to attend a Cabinet meeting.

General Sheridan leaves Long Branch shortly for a tour of inspection among the Western military posts.

Ku Klux Pardoned

WASHINGTON, August 11.—Colonel Whitely Chief of the Secret Service Division reports in favor of pardoning Collins and seventeen other members of South Carolina Ku Klux imprisoned at Albany. Collins was one of the prisoners for whom Gerrett Smith interceded and is an illiterate simple minded man as is another of the seventeen.

Whitely reports against the pardon of Brown, for whom also a recommendation was made by Smith but makes no recommendation as to the remaining forty six cases. It is understood that those recommended for pardon will be released immediately.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

London News

LONDON, August 13.—The Times, speaking in regard to the royal speech in reference to the East Coast slave trade, says that it is "the most significant part of the speech, and we suppose it is not an error to connect this announcement with the recent discovery of Livingstone and dispatches to the foreign office brought by Stanley, the great traveler."

Abolition of Slavery in Spanish Colonies

LONDON, August 13.—A Times Madrid special says that King Amadeus is reported to have signed a decree providing for the gradual abolition of slavery in Cuba and Porto Rico. The document which he signed is simply a code of rules providing for the enforcement of a law passed by the Cortes in 1869 providing for the emancipation of slaves in Spanish colonies.

From Geneva

NEW YORK, August 13.—A Geneva letter says the American claims for damages by privateers sum up about $7,000,000. The English papers in the case, however, fixed the damages at $3 000,000, which, it is contended is all that should be paid if indeed any guilt is to be laid to England at all.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, August 13.—Sales of stocks this morning aggregate 9 536 shares with generally firm prices. At the afternoon Board 13 000 shares were sold of which 2 020 were Meadow Valley and 1 200 Belmont. It is understood that an effort is being made to concentrate Imperial in the hands of a single party with the object of consolidating with two or more neighboring companies and for this purpose the stock is subjected to a vigorous bear pressure.

There is a movement on foot among the Democrats to request W A Piper, nominee for Congress from this District, to withdraw and then call a joint convention of Democrats and Liberal Republicans to nominate a new candidate. Piper's nomination causes so much dissatisfaction among the Democrats and Liberal Republicans alike, that if such action is not taken, an independent anti subsidy candidate is certain to be put in the field with strong chances of success. Clayton and Henry Baker are spoken of for the independent nomination.

Nothing has been heard of the British bark Seyborn, from New Castle, England for San Francisco now 220 days out since she sailed, and it is feared she has been lost with all on board.

The steamer Santa Cruz collided last evening with the schooner Jos. Turner [illegible] and damaged the steamer so that she was compelled to return for repairs.

Arrived—steamer Montana from Panama. She touched at Acapulco, Mazatlan and Cape St Lucas. Matters at Sinaloa are reported quieting down. She left the U S Surveying steamer Hassler, with a scientific party on board, at Acapulco.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, this evening seized a box of eight inches in height, two feet wide and five feet long, containing thirty six live chickens which had been brought from Portland by steamer. The fowls had not received food or water on the trip. The parties bringing them here will be prosecuted.

Henry Rosenwig was found dead in his bed, on Seventeenth street. A post mortem examination showed disease of the heart.

Congressman Kelly is addressing a very large audience at Platt's Hall this evening. Among the audience are many ladies.

George Francis Train is speaking to a moderate audience at Maguires.

Judge Louderback imposed twenty one fines aggregating over $1 200 for the City Treasury.

Two hoodlums, who created a row at the City Gardens were fined $100 each, and others for vulgar language and assault and battery $120. This branch of the city government is doing the best paying business of any.

UTAH

SALT LAKE, August 13.—A dispatch from Fairview San Pete county, says the Indians have broken in upon herders shooting two men and wounding others using arrows. The settlers turned out and had a fight with the Indians who retreated toward the mountains, driving with them a lot of stolen horses. The settlers pushed on to Thistle Valley and succeeded in recovering the horses and herds.

Reports from different sections of the Territory represent crops as unusually good. No grasshoppers.

Receipts of ore from Little Cottonwood are greatly diminished. No ore from the Emma owing to a cave.

NEVADA

CARSON, August 12.—At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee held on Saturday it was decided to hold the State Convention at Reno on Wednesday September 1[illegible].

A Grant and Wilson Club has been organized here with a membership of 1[illegible] and a Greeley and Brown Club with [illegible] members.

It is intended to have the grading on the Virginia and Truckee road between here and Steamboat finished by the [illegible] inst and cars running through to this place by the 1st of September when passengers from the Central Pacific can be landed in Virginia without changing cars.

THE KITTITAS AND LITTLE ASS VALLEYS—FARMS CLIMATE AND STOCK.

KITTITAS, W T, August 1 1872

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

We have had no uncomfortably warm weather but on the contrary a cold spring and summer. This is my first spring and summer in this portion of Washington Territory. The prevailing coldness may be attributed to the fact that in altitude we are from 1 400 to 1 400 feet higher than the town of Walla Walla. The prevailing wind is from the west. It doubtless may be termed as the settlers of Benton county call it, the sea breeze. Suffice to say, that on an average it blows five days out of seven. It must follow as a consequence, that it is healthy and I believe it is.

The crops in this entire section are good and the hay crop first rate. The heavy snow that fell here last winter, went off so gradually that the ground got well saturated, hence the good grass. Farming in this valley is as yet quite limited but it is only about four years since the first settler came here. Wheat oats and potatoes grow remarkably well here. I think it a little too cold for corn to succeed well. It is not so good for the production of the latter as Walla Walla county.

Most of the settlers here will turn their attention to stock raising. The summer range is one of the best east of the Cascade Mountains. I suppose there are ranging in this valley, at present, from 9,000 to 12 000 head of cattle. A great many of the settlers on the Lower Yakima drive here in the spring and use this as the summer range for their horned stock. Then before winter sets in they drive down to their respective claims on the Yakima river. There seems to be a market at Seattle for all the beef cattle that this whole country produces. Seattle is distant about 110 miles, the road thither lies through the Snoqualmie pass. We have no outlet or inlet. Two high mountain ranges shut us off from Umatilla and Walla Walla; in addition, we have the greater range, Clikitat, between us and the Dalles, the distance to the latter is about 120 miles and to Umatilla and Walla Walla the distance much the same. The former may be said to be about 110 miles, while to the latter thirty miles might be added.

We have no railroads and our future prospects, in this regard, are by no means encouraging. We have been clinging to the idea that the presence of the North Pacific branch would greet us at no very distant day. The outlook for such a realization, however, at this time or any other, seems exceedingly problematical. There has been a large petition, numerously signed, and sent to Washington, praying for a military road to connect Seattle with the most feasible point on the Columbia river, say at Wallula or some place above.

We are a very temperate people here. There is not a saloon kept in this valley, and I believe there are but two in Yakima county, and one of them is away above the Priest Rapids, among the Indians. There are not over six or eight white persons within fifteen miles of it. It is said to be a regular dead fall.

This valley numbers about 150 votes. Our mail facilities are terribly out of joint somewhere. It takes from thirteen to fifteen days to get a letter conveyed from Walla Walla here. Letters have been received from Canada in fifteen days. The fault lies along the line somewhere. It is said that there is one postmaster on the route who attends more punctually on his juleps than to his official duties. I would give the first letters of his name if I could have the private ear of the postal agent for about fifteen minutes. Last winter there was one spell of six weeks we did not receive any mail at all. That was the fault of the carrier.

I have the first Greeley man to find among all the Republicans here. There are some admirers here of the Day Book and Pomeroy's Democrat, all of whom shun the sorehead ticket. They think whenever the time comes that the Democratic party can no longer stand on its own merits and footing, it is time to disband. They cannot be reconciled to the ticket gotten up for them by the soreheads. Poor Greeley! I pity him! to think that he is being made a tool of by designing men—that he, at this late day, for a slim chance of becoming President, should dim the lustre of a fair fame, and should have for his aiders and abettors the very worst men of his state, as also those of the metropolis.

The country has twice committed the error of electing imbecile men to the highest office—W H Harrison and James Buchanan. The former lived one month, the latter lived his time out, and long enough to be the means of bringing on a most devastating war. Now imbecility wants it again, but there is no chance for Greeley to disgrace the country. He only brings shame and reproach on himself and the good name he had acquired. His acceptance of the office shows his unfitness, but he will never reign as lord of the White House. Such is the opinion of your humble servant.

The Reaction

The San Francisco Bulletin is not a party paper, but like many other journals of its kind it sees many reasons why Grant should be re elected. It says that the Greeley demonstration has evidently reached its height and a reaction is manifest. We quote this:

As people come to reason coolly, they can see no grounds for expecting that Greeley with a Democratic Congress and a crowd of hungry place hunters clamoring about him would be able to effect any reform in the civil service, while there is danger that fresh experimenting with the finances would shake commercial confidence and lessen the national credit. Back of this is the probability, not to say the certainty, that a Democratic Congress would refuse whatever legislation is necessary to enforce the Constitutional amendments and would permit the reconstructed States to drift into a policy virtually denying equal civil rights. Such risks are too great to be lightly incurred, and Grant's administration has been too successful in its leading features to be exchanged for a dubious experiment.

The Bulletin also thinks that Democratic opposition to Greeley will develop very strongly. It says:

It is now evident that Greeley will not be supported by the Democracy with near so much unanimity as was expected. The defect in North Carolina is followed by a vigorous and telling if somewhat embittered circular from the Democratic Executive Committee of Kentucky urging immediate organization for the purpose of sending delegates to the Louisville Convention to be held next month. It will be remembered that Greeley's nomination at Baltimore led to a meeting of protesting Democrats, who issued a call for a National Straight Convention. Since then the unconverted in several States have appointed delegates and Kentucky is now about to do the same. There is reason to believe that the Louisville Convention will reaffirm the old ideas of Democracy and put up their Presidential ticket.

A LIBERAL AND OFFICE SEEKER WANTS TO ASSIST A MEMBER OF THE LEGISLATURE—SUGGESTS A CONTINGENCY—THE SOFT SOAP [illegible] TO MAKE WAR ON GRANT BUT ONLY TO [illegible] GALLANT SERVICES ON THE OUTPOSTS—A MANLY, OUTSPOKEN AND EMPHATIC INDEPENDENT ANSWER.

LAWSON TO ENGLE.

SALEM, August 4 1872

Dear Engle: I send you proceedings of Liberal Republicans in forming a club. One of our great objects is to protect the interests of the State and show a front in the shape of a strong party to assist you and other Republican Representatives in obtaining just and correct Legislation for the State. We want to save the swamp lands of the State and obtain a Capital appropriation, &c.

It is not improbable, but you may hold the casting vote of U S Senator also. There are many good Republicans in this State who greatly prefer that Holladay should not dictate the man. We look to you as an honest, firm and intelligent Representative, to keep out of the clutches of party, and not suffer yourself to be shackled by anybody, any man or any party, so that at any time and all times you can do that which is best for the State. If our name or our party power is anything, we intend to use it to sustain good men in good measures. We heard your declarations on the stump last spring, and believing them, is why we write you. A few firm and honest men can do a great deal to obtain justice to the State.

In listing our names as Liberal Republicans and Greeley men, we do not proclaim war upon Gen. Grant, or forget his gallant service to our common country. We only post ourselves as vigilant sentinels on the outposts of measures. A vigilant and strong opposition ensures purity and carefulness in the party in power, and helps to keep the State right. That is my position if I know myself.

Please reply. Truly yours

G W LAWSON Sec'y

ENGLE TO LAWSON.

BELPASSI, Ogn, Aug 8 1872

HON G W LAWSON, Dear Sir—Yours of the 4th inst has been received and contents considered. Your advice to keep out of corrupt party cliques is very good and I think that I shall act accordingly, at least so far as to keep out of sorehead Greeley organizations. It might be proper for me to say that, while I am a Republican, I do not hold that everything the Republicans may do is right, but I propose to use what little ability and influence I may possess, in endeavoring to remedy what evils there may be, without going outside the Republican organization. Permit me to say that while I do not assume to sit in judgment on your actions, I cannot help but think that you are acting a little inconsistent in joining the Greeley party. You say that you do not proclaim war upon General Grant, nor forget his gallant services to our common country. If your joining a party which is at war with Gen. Grant, with the Republican party, with the best interests of the country, and with all the great [illegible] that have cost the country so much blood and treasure, is not proclaiming war upon Gen. Grant, then, sir, I do not know how you would go about proclaiming war against the Republican candidate for President. For I maintain that every organization gotten up in opposition to the nominees of the Republican party at Philadelphia, whatever name you may call it, whether Greeley, Liberal Republican, Reform, Dolly Varden, or what not, is a move to play into the hands of the old rebel Democratic party, and until I am convinced to the contrary, I shall treat all those who shows as enemies to the Republican party and to the best interests of our common country. Again, you are, yourself, inconsistent, in that you propose to hold me to my declarations in the campaign last spring, while you assume the right to bolt any or all the nominees of the Republican party. You said at Howell's Prairie, last spring, that if Gen Grant was nominated at Philadelphia, you would vote for him. Now, sir, I do not think you are the proper person to hold me accountable for anything I may have said, while you deliberately go back on your own public declarations. If you wish to hold anybody to any past declarations a decent regard for consistency would suggest that you stick to your own, especially the one above alluded to. Yours respectfully,

JOSEPH ENGLE.

P S—The soft soap part of your letter I will not reply to, as it came two months and a day too late.

Sad times are come upon the Jesuits in Germany. The government has commenced the most severe measures for their [illegible] expulsion from the country, and the [illegible] up of every church, school, college or monastery of the order. The Franciscans, Dominicans and Carthusian orders of monks have many fine retreats and costly [illegible], schools and chapels, but these are to be vacated within six months, or the police will have their hands upon them. This indicates very significantly a new order of things in the German Government, and a fear of any centralized and secret form of society. Meantime Germany still respects the Roman Catholic faith, and is trying to induce the other powers to join in the election of a new Pope. France, however, wants this dignitary taken from her own soil, and it is not impossible that serious complications may arise on this account.

Audacious Calumny

In an editorial published on Sunday the Herald attempted to be very severe on President Grant a cutting l o onnection with the J m l sk and pir which sent gold up in New York on his famous Black Friday thre w all the business of the country into confusion and stripp l large numbers of honest men of their property It is unnecessary to take any notice of such a slander as this which the Herald prints for Sunday morning reading yet it may not be amiss to quote what the Democratic candidate for the Presidency has said about it, and how he has rebuked such vilifiers as the Herald. We quote from an article by Mr Greeley that appeared in the Tribune on October 18 186

The insinuation that the President was in collusion with the gold gamblers never had a fact to lift it above the level of a dac o a ol y or a motive save the current s sert o alis of l y maliy ty There was a combination to put gold up When it assumed dangerous proportions Gen Grant interfered and crushed it There upon he is charged with having been a member of it! The country knows its President to be incapable of such conduct If it did not, it would still be able in so plain a case to reason that men are not secretly seeking that which they openly determinedly and effectively destroy By their fruits ye shall know them

So it appears that the Herald is simply repeating a slander which the leader of its party has denounced as an audacious calumny, the offspring of clumsy malignity A very proper characterization Greeley knows these fellows well

A Pertinent Question

It is well known that large numbers of the people of the Southern States have not relinquished the idea of being reimbursed by the general government for the slaves and other losses by the war. Claims of every conceivable description are ready for presentation at a favorable moment The men who brought on the war still cling to the idea of obtaining payment for what they lost by it, and large numbers of claims preferred by persons who were active in promoting secession and in fighting against the Government of the Union, are being pressed before the Southern Claims Commission with great pertinacity What these people want is a change of administration which will enable them to get their claims out of the Treasury If they can elect Greeley and a Democratic Congress, they have great hope of ultimate success But their success would bankrupt the Government, and lead to the payment of the whole losses of the South, with immense fictitious and trumped up claims besides It will be remembered that in 1864, long after the Proclamation of Emancipation Greeley wanted to arrange with the South by paying four hundred millions of dollars for the liberated slaves and urged this arrangement upon President Lincoln Lincoln would not listen to it Shall the Government now be entrusted to those who want to get possession of it chiefly in order to reimburse themselves out the Treasury for the losses they suffered in their attempt to destroy the Government and break up the Union?

A Great Journal

The New York Times beyond all question is the ablest, fairest and most trustworthy of the great journals of the country It is now the leading Republican paper of the United States The commanding position it occupies has been achieved by untiring energy and disinterested fidelity to the Republican party It holds the place as a leading Republican journal which was occupied by the Tribune before that paper formed its alliance with the Tammany and Ku Klux Democracy No other great paper equals the Times in the trustworthiness of its news While the Tribune and the lesser Democratic organs were claiming North Carolina, the Times maintained that the State was Republican No other paper takes so much pains to report political news accurately, and no great journal in the country is so well worthy of the support of Republicans. The Times is taking the Tribune's old patrons by thousands

In the Eastern counties of Oregon Democracy don't take kindly to Greeley In fact in many parts of that Democratic stronghold, the Democrat who talks of voting for him is tabooed by his neighbors and treated as a pariah A letter from Grant county informs us that the writer was present a few days ago at a gathering where there were twenty six Democrats The whole twenty-six declared they would not vote for Greeley, and the man who seemed to be leader of the crowd wanted to bet one hundred dollars (taking the money out of his pocket) that Greeley will not get a vote in the precinct Some one present suggested the name of one Democrat living in the precinct that would vote for Greeley 'If he does,' the crowd exclaimed, we'll egg him!'' A similar sentiment exists in all the Eastern counties Those counties usually give five to eight hundred Democratic majority. Good judges are of opinion that they will now give a majority for Grant

Who could have imagined that he would live to see it? Here are the Democratic organs of Oregon urging Greeley's "life-long devotion to the colored race," and his advocacy of "negro equality, as reasons why he should be President! And here they are, too seconding Sumner's assault on Grant on the ground that Greeley has been a better friend of the colored race, and that Grant didn't take Mr Fred Douglass to the White House one day to dine with him' And though it has been shown that Douglass was not in Washington on that occasion, still they are unsatisfied What next?

The Herald's boast about the North Carolina election is reduced to a claim that the Republicans have sustained a 'moral defeat' Our neighbor goes to metaphysics and to the refinements of ethical philosophy for consolation, But how it can be that Republicans have sustained a moral defeat in an election whose result has so utterly demoralized the Democracy isn't clear yet

The Washington Chronicle publishes a list of one hundred and nineteen German papers in the Union that support Grant and Wilson One hundred and five support Greeley and Brown Among these last are included all the German Democratic papers This statement disposes of the claim that the German press is for Greeley

A prominent Democrat of this city says he has always thought more of principles than men, and inasmuch as the Democratic party has thrown overboard all its principles he shall select men to suit himself Therefore he expects to vote for Grant

There is a lonesome Greeley Republican in Douglas county—the party of the name of Matlock—who is anxiously waiting for his great leader, Jasper Johnson, to come home and organize him for the campaign

"Judge Johnson

We have already noticed the fact that Jasper Johnson's portrait shines in F k I s l Irdi The following neat biography—an autobiography of course accompanies the wood cut Unfortunately no allusion is made to his del l ratl n of i rual law its most illus t s ach vement while Adj t (neral f Washington Territory or are y (m of l i ol rnl tyle in th r Th sl tch is j volin, ly b f h l i o o to the na o l t l al a l rns true greatn s l l

In 1861 he received the appointment of Adjutant General of the Territory—a position he held until 1863 when he returned to Oregon On reaching his old home he was appointed Judge by Governor Gibbs serving in that capacity two years

From 1865 to 1868 he owned and conducted the Cour On withdrawing from editorial duties he resumed his law practice at Portland where he now resides [It is to be hoped that the Portland reader won't laugh

Judge Johnson was a delegate to the Cincinnati Convention and labored earnestly for the formation of the ticket subsequently presented He is a thoroughly representative man Gifted with many sterling qualities his experience of men and public questions has fitted him for a leader in the new revolution [Risum teneatis] He is of fair complexion, and about five feet ten inches in height An acute observer a close reasoner a powerful writer a man of strong sympathies and wonderful activity he has made himself popular wherever his lot among men has been cast He is a gentleman of agreeable presence and an untiring ally As a public speaker he is dignified and generous striking directly at the root of evil and defending the cause of the oppressed in trenchant language Securing the full sympathy of his auditors at the start he binds thoughts to facts often more true than agreeable

Libel Suits

A few days ago the telegraph stated that General Kilpatrick had brought a libel suit against the New York Times That paper had spoken of him as one of the disreputable characters that support Greeley and said that he had been recalled from Chile, whither he had been sent as Minister of the United States, for having attempted to force an abandoned woman into Chilean society.' For this Kilpatrick brings his suit The Times refuses to retract All the Democratic papers of the country have published the same statement about Kilpatrick over and over George N Saunders also threatens the Times with a libel suit To this threat that paper spiritedly replies

To him we say thus publicly that we will not withdraw a single word we have said about him Therefore the sooner he brings his action the better We will prove him to have been a traitor and a rascal The disreputable characters who are at work for Greeley need not flatter themselves that they will deter us from exhibiting them to the public in their true light

Elsewhere in the same article the editor says

We have attacked most of the scandalous combinations of corrupt politicians and adventurers who now surround Mr Greeley and shall probably attack them again and again We may take the liberty of saying that if we had not risked the inconvenience of denouncing these men a year ago the city would still have been in the hands of Tweed and his fellow thieves We do not intend to stand by silently while the stone which we rolled up the hill last year is rolled down again by the Tweed and Greeley alliance

Greeley's Miscegenation Theory

In the Spring of 1864 there appeared in the New York Tribune a series of editorial articles advocating amalgamation of the white and black races, and claiming that the product of this amalgation would be a far better and higher development of the human race than had ever yet appeared It was asserted by the Democracy that Greeley's views on this subject were those of the Republican party, and in 1864, Col Kelly (now Senator) while running for Congress, read extracts from these articles as proof of the immoral, disgusting and degrading tendencies of Republican doctrines, and commented on them in very severe language No doubt hundreds of people still remember this peculiar feature of Kelly's speeches of 1864 Of course Greeley in these articles did not speak for the Republican party, But Democrats now have the man whom they denounced for a hideous miscegenationist as their candidate for President and since they have made him their leader they can be fairly charged with having accepted his political and social theories as their creed When Kelly comes back to Oregon to speak for Greeley it will be decidedly refreshing to the Democracy to hear him read those miscegenation doctrines from the Tribune, and to comment on them as a reason why Greeley should have the full support of every true Democrat

The Louisville Ledger, a Democratic paper, makes this admission 'The campaign is developing the fact that a large number of Democrats in all sections of the country are not disposed to advocate the election of Horace Greeley They do not indorse the action of the Baltimore Convention They regard the nomination of Greeley and Brown as suicidal in the extreme, and in conflict with the best interests of the country, believing all this, they cannot put aside their honest convictions and therefore proclaim that they are not for Greeley and Brown

The Illinois State Journal says 'For a President one term of four years is considered long enough For a Senator three or four terms, continuing eighteen or twenty four years, is considered a very proper thing We do not learn that Mr Sumner or Mr Trumbull have scruples about taking another six years of public service, though both are very clear that the liberties of the country are in danger from a second Presidential term

Five sixths of the defalcations charged to the present Administration were committed under Johnson and discovered by Grant

A few days since an effort was made to organize a Greeley and Brown German Club at Troy N Y At the appointed hour there was a good attendance but the persons who had worked up the meeting were astounded when the crowd declared almost unanimously for Grant The meeting organized a Grant Club with Charles Sehla ohot as President and M O enhauser ed tor of the Troy Volk freund as Secretary

The three German papers of Cleveland Ohio all supported the 'reform' movement when it seemed to mean reform But since the true character of the movement has been developed two of them the Anzeiger and Germania have pronounced for Grant and the remaining one, the Waechter is dissatisfied with Greeley

CITY.

Umpqua Bridge.—Work on the bridge is progressing rapidly The timbers are being framed at Comst s mill and conveyed to the river The object is to have the bridge completed so as to admit the passage of cars in about two weeks The bridge which is to span the Umpqua is of much larger dimensions than the one across the Wallamet river at Harrisburg The bridge has five Howe Truss spans of one hundred and fifty four and a half feet each and one sixty foot span besides two hundred and seventy feet of trestle work making a total length of one thousand and ninety six feet and six inches The main body of the bridge is about thirty feet above the water at low water mark The river at the point where the road will cross is about two hundred feet wide at the lowest stage and over twelve hundred feet when at the highest The track has been laid to the bank of the Umpqua, and construction trains are running to that point daily with bridge materials etc From the river to Roseburg the distance is six miles The grading for that stretch of road has been about completed A temporary bridge over the Umpqua is being constructed and will soon be ready for the passage of construction trains The object of this is to allow the necessary materials to be conveyed to the front so that the ties and track can be laid and ready for regular trains to run from the bridge to Roseburg, by the time that structure is completed

Get a License.—Persons who through carelessness or neglect, fail to comply with the requirements of the law often find themselves in trouble which a little precaution would enable them to avoid For instance, several days ago one of the hotel runners of the city was arrested by a policeman on the charge of not having any license The young man was arraigned before Judge Denny and being a comparative stranger here and pleading ignorance of the existence of such a law he was reprimanded and discharged by the court The fact of the arrest went the rounds of the daily press and all runners were notified that it would be best to procure licenses before engaging in that calling But still it seems that some of these runners pursue the business at the hazard of being arrested Last evening on the arrival of the Dalles boat, another runner was arrested for a similar offense. The case will probably come up this morning It is good policy to always be on the safe side, especially as the license will cost but a few dollars

Windy.—A stiff gale swept up from the south late yesterday evening making the dust scatter, and doors and window shutters slam to and fro At one time the wind was so high as to seriously threaten the newly raised spire of Trinity Church This structure, since it has been raised to its place is not very securely braced, and is held only by our guys. The least force from the wind, or any other cause, which would throw it beyond a vertical position, would cause its overthrow and consequent ruin A number of persons collected on the corners—however keeping a healthy distance away—to witness as they supposed the disastrous fall of the beautiful and costly structure, but were agreeably surprised that it weathered the gale, although the wind caused it to sway to and fro, and strain the ropes by which it was steadied

That Comet.—The dispatches on Monday evening contained the startling announcement that between the hours of four and six o clock of that evening according to the observation of two of the most celebrated astronomers of the present age, a huge comet was to collide with this terrestrial orb and smash us all to "smithereens" We very gravely question either the accuracy of the instruments with which the observation were taken, or the judgment of the astronomers, for since that time we have waited with impatience to witness the last grand catastrophe—nature's annihilation—but no comet has put in a fiery appearance and old Mother Earth still goes on cavorting through space as if no danger was theatened

For Refitting.—Yesterday the steamer Annie Stewart which has been tied up below the bone yard for the last eighteen months, was towed up to the foot of Salmon street by the Vancouver The intention of the owners of this boat, Messrs Corbett Gilman and Turnbull, is to have her thoroughly overhauled New boilers will be placed in and other improvements added A new wheel will be built, and the Annie Stewart placed in complete running trim as soon as practicable What line she will take is not known at present, but most likely it will be the Portland Astoria route, as an opposition steamer

Crowing.—On Tuesday morning about one o'clock nearly all the roosters in the city, as if actuated by a common instinct, commenced to crew vigorously This was continued for nearly the space of half an hour It must remain one of the profound questions for philosophers and wise acres to solve, whether the cocks were crowing over the anticipated destruction of all nature from the terrible collision from the predicted comet or over the fall of the Herald's bantam, which, since the victory in North Carolina, has slunk crest fallen to its native dunghill Let the organ speak and dissolve the problem

Needed.—Several workmen commenced yesterday morning to repair and construct a new stoop to the rear of the Cosmopolitan Hotel The old and partially decayed underpinning will be torn away and replaced by new Excavations along the back are being made so that solid substantial foundations can be obtained on which to place the braces A new back porch will be constructed, and also a sidewalk along Stark street, extending from the rear of the building to Front street. The improvement has long been needed, and will add materially to the appearance of the building

Escaped.—One of the bears confined at the East Portland Park, effected an escape yesterday After getting loose he strayed from his companion some distance At length he came to the gate leading from the enclosure His bruinship reconnoitred for a moment, and at length pushed the gate open and walked out in the street Mr Johnson the owner of the animal, who lives directly opposite the Park, happened to espy the "varmint" The animal was captured and led back to where the other bear was kept

Fees.—From and after the first of next month, the U S Marshal and Clerk will require the payment of fees at the end of each month, or, as the same may accrue and no process of any kind will be entered filed issued or served by them until the fees due are paid No exceptions will be made to this rule Hereafter these officers propose to adopt the "cash system" so that arrearages in fees may be avoided in the future

As Police Judge.—Owing to the continued indisposition of Judge Denny, and his inability to hold court the Justice of the Peace for North Portland precinct, Alex Dodge, has been acting temporarily in his stead A number of cases were disposed of by that officer both on Monday and yesterday morning Justice Dodge will doubtless continue to act until Judge Denny is able to resume judicial functions

Exempt Certificates.—The Committee appointed at the last meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Fire Department in this city, to prepare and report a suitable device to be used in connection with certificates of exempt firemen, have, we learn held two meetings The Committee have nearly completed the plan for a very neat device which will be reported at the next meeting of the Board

United States Court.—The United States Court meets on Thursday morning A jury has been called for that day And the important case of James Barcleay vs Captain G A Goodale, Commander of Fort Klamath will be commenced The issue is as to the liability for an arrest for introducing liquor on the military reservation Fay & Reed for plaintiff, Gibbs & Dowell for defendant

John L. Stephens.—This steamer arrived here from San Francisco yesterday afternoon, having made the passage from dock to dock in seventy four hours and a half Astoria was reached on Monday night at 8.30 o'clock Owing to the dense smoke she remained there during the night and steamed up the following morning She brings forty four passengers

Will Convene.—The U S District Court will convene next Monday morning when the criminal docket will be taken up Most of the week will probably be devoted to the trial of the several persons involved in the killing affair of the Indian at Yaquina Bay after which the trial of the four persons charged with the stage robbery at Antelope Canyon will be taken up.

Returned.—Judge M P Deady returned last evening from Astoria on the Dixie Thompson He has been spending a few days by the sad sea waves to recuperate his energies and seek a brief respite from his labors in fishing, bathing and rambling among the adjacent woods He returns to preside at the U S Circuit Court which will convene to morrow

Woods on Fire.—The timber to the north west of the city was on fire last evening The whole heavens were illuminated by the flames Some superstitious persons labored under the belief for a time, that it was fragments of the exploded comet The fire met a decided check from the gentle Webfoot dews which descended at a later hour

Dead Chinaman.—The body of a dead Chinaman was brought to this city yesterday on the Fanny Troup It was taken on board at Pumphrey's Landing The Chinaman is said to have been killed by an accident at some point along the line of the N P R R We were unable to learn the circumstances of the unfortunate occurence

Arrived.—The steamer California arrived here yesterday from Victoria and way ports She brought the following passengers John Jackson Captain Horton and family Mrs L Jones, Thomas Nicholson and wife David Stimson Miss E Rodney John Clark William Waller N Bannister, wife and son

Columbia Street.—The condition of this street between Fourth and Fifth is such that it requires immediate attention The winter rains have washed deep holes and gulches in the sandy soil, so as to render travel to any but pedestrians utterly impossible It should be improved without delay

Police Commissioners.—The Police Commissioners met last evening at their rooms The books were examined and found satisfactory and correct An officer was suspended on a charge of disorderly conduct, until the charges can be examined into The Board then adjourned

Assault.—Mrs Caroline Perry was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued from Justice Ryan s court charged with having committed an assault on E Kennedy The defendant on being arraigned, pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs, and was discharged on payment

Large Stones.—Several very large stones intended to be used on the new Custom House, was brought on the steamer California Some of them are nearly 12 feet square and weigh upwards of seven tons each

Basement.—The brick basement of the new school house west of the Custom House block, has been nearly completed The wood work will follow as rapidly as possible, until the building is ready for occupancy

Moved.—The old wooden tenements at the corner of Alder and Third streets are being torn down and the debris removed Earth will soon be broke for the Good Templars Hall intended to occupy that site

Fined.—The case of State vs Sheehan charged with an assault on the person of H J Twomey was tried before Justice Davis on Monday evening The defendant was found guilty and fined $5 and costs

Married.—Purser Goodhue of the steamship California, married Miss Fanny Cooper in Victoria on the 6th inst The couple came to this city by the California, which arrived yesterday

Resumed.—Studies will be resumed at St Mary's Academy on next Monday morning 19th inst

THE ROBBERY AT OREGON CITY

Oregon City August 12 1872

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

Sir For the past few days the residents of our city have experienced an immunity from any of the sensational occurrences which have of late been so frequent among them A diligent inquiry, however has been instituted endeavoring if possible to obtain some positive and reliable clue by which the perpetrator of the robbery of the safe and store of our Postmaster J M Bacon, might be discovered and brought to justice. Officer J M McCoy was communicated with immediately on the return of Mr Bacon from Soda Springs, and on Mr McCoy s arrival he examined the scene of operations, regretting the fact that he had not been summoned earlier With little ground to work on, however, he commenced operations, and there is little doubt but that he has struck a vein which will eventually unravel the mystery Two men named Lee and Brady have been arrested and lodged in jail here there being strong suspicions that they were implicated in the robbery Their examination was set for to-day, but owing to the absence of an important witness the case was postponed for examination until to morrow The result I will communicate to you

To the Citizens of Portland and East Portland

The undersigned having been granted the franchise for building a bridge across the Wallamet to connect your cities deems it proper at this time in view of the great interest taken in the enterprise by citizens to say a few words in explanation of the situation

I would have made the statement now published long before this but was unavoidably absent at the end of the Oregon and California Road superintending the work on a very important bridge that I am constructing for that company It is however only in view of the fact that the general interest taken in the important work of bridging the river at this point has caused some impatience that this public statement can be considered late for so far as the enterprise is concerned no movement could properly be made until certain preliminaries were arranged The plans and specifications are now completed and a correct estimate of the cost of the bridge has been made A joint stock company is now organized and a transfer of the franchise will be made to it This company will build and own the bridge

Its capital stock has been fixed at $400 000 in shares of $100 each

The bridge proposed by the plans submitted to the Council will be a very elaborate structure such as would only be proper to connect the two most important cities of the northwest coast A passable bridge could be built for much less money than will be expended on this one but occupying such a conspicuous position and in contrast with the buildings of the cities it connects it would be a slur upon the community

The bridge proposed will be a highly ornamental structure and will rank strictly first class as to architecture stability and convenience It is proposed by the Company to build a bridge that will be safe against injury by winds or floods and to so protect the ends that it will be insurable against fire at the lowest rates To build a structure of the character described and to defray foreseen and incidental expenses requires the capital stock of the Company undertaking it to be as large as has been fixed upon in the premises

The entire stock may never be issued, and probably will not but it is deemed advisable to fix the amount within safe limits rather than incur the liability of a compelled resort to the process of a subsequent increase of shares

The exact location of the bridge will probably be determined by citizens but it is deemed feasible to construct it at any point between Pine street on the north, and Clay street on the south —those being the limit fixed upon by the City Council On location I would add that as there is a strife between the upper and lower ends of both cities for the termini it has been thought best to leave the question to be decided by the largest subscription to stock Accordingly selecting Morrison Yamhill and Taylor streets in Portland and N O and P streets in East Portland bids will be received by the Company s agents specifying the bidders choice of location as north or south, those streets inclusive When the question of location is settled (which will be on or before the 28th inst) preparations for the work will be at once begun and active operations will be inaugurated in time to enable the piers to be completed before the coming season of freshets The superstructure will be completed and the bridge opened to traffic within a year, unless some totally unforeseen accident prevents For the satisfaction of the public generally knowing that nearly all feel an interest in it I herewith append a general condensed description

The bridge to be in spans of 200 feet with a revolving draw feet in length The draw to be located 600 feet from the west side of the river

To have double tracks each 15 feet in the clear with a foot walk on each side 4 feet 6 inches wide

The superstructure will be covered with tin and weatherboarded on the outside with open vent lation in the roof the entire length To afford light by day there will be large windows every 2 feet By night it will be illuminated with gas The floor will be covered with Nicolson pavement and the ends are to be properly enclosed by colonnades and ornamental gables The extreme ends to rest on stone abutments The center piers to be piled cribbed filled with stone and protected by caissons made of boiler iron from low water to a point 6 feet below the bed of the river The foot ways will be furnished with six saloons—three on each side—for resting places

The plan of the bridge is that of a Howe Truss of first class capable of sustaining a rolling load of three tons per lineal foot Total width of the bridge 46 feet, and the length 2 637 feet or a little less than half a mile

Twenty five years' experience in bridge building assures me that the bridge proposed by the plans will be entirely satisfactory to its owners and the public at large

By a comparative examination of the receipts of the present ferries, it will be readily seen that the enterprise under consideration will pay a larger per cent than any other investment now offered in this most prosperous State

Very respectfully H R LEONARD

A Slash ng Article on Sumner

The Boston T r er is the best representative of the New England mind of any paper published It has always her tofore been friendly to Sumner [illegible] is pr [illegible] ut a temp [illegible] to throw the G vern en into the hands of the Democratic party [illegible] raws from that paper th fo owing scor h n art le

There may be th e who [illegible] take the trouble to answer M S r r [illegible] t r n int by point He [illegible] be labor los The [illegible] of his apostasy [illegible] hatred [illegible] President It [illegible] personal quarrel that h makes use of he details of his incons [illegible] and most un worthy letter For h she propos [illegible] the political p rty that h s tr [illegible] sacrifice the confidence of a State which has honored him and enlist as many negro [illegible] as he can in a wild crusa e t re erse the entire policy of the Government The m gnitude of the plan dwarfs the miserable pr texts on which he professes to rest h s cause To mention them [illegible] answer them

It is impossible to read his appeal to the negroes to join him in his new allegiance and believe that he is incere He begins with an elaborate sneer at the President s fortunate birth his education at the public expense his starting in l fe without industry or character but with a military commission his voting for Buchanan and thus fortifying all the pretensions of slavery, including the Dred Scott decision his blundering into the war and stumbling upon victories Without a word or a thought of recognition of the merits of the President at this period Mr Sumner dwells upon his subsequent alternations of indifference and hostility to the colored race, culminating in his forgetting to invite Fred Douglass to dinner his hovering over Hayti like a hawk sailing in the air ready to pounce upon his prey his tolerance of the Ku Klux, his want of intolerance in the Civil Rights bill with which our Senator blocked most of the leading measures of the session All this is inverted history—a caricature of the truth, drawn in bold colors, with the purpose to deceive

With reference to the present position of the candidates there are a score of salient points which good journalists, orators and village H—[illegible] without number have seriously set themselves to answer It is enough for our purpose to recall the worst of them Mr Sumner, sometimes in the attitude of a guardian add[illegible] ng his wards, sometimes of a feudal lord issuing orders to his serfs and villains speaks of the Republican National Convention as chosen largely by office holders, and assembled to sustain what is known as Grantism, of the President again as representing a diversified army of office holders drilled to obey the word of command and rings composed of men of selfish character and dishonest lives, in contrast with Greeley borne in the arms of devoted and incorruptible Republicans and repentant Democrats, singing Greeley songs to the tune of Old John Brown, in token of their new birth of the President still again, to whom the Senator returns with unforgetting and unforgiving malice, after the long list of his particular misdeeds is exhausted— unquestionably he deserves impeachment for high crimes and misdemeanors, by the side of which the allegations against Andrew Johnson were technical and trivial These and many others like them are points which excite attention and provoke reply But to what end? Mr Sumner does not believe them and there is not a colored man from Beacon Hill to New Orleans who does not know they are not true

The two parties which have divided the country for nearly twenty years, and are now centering upon an earnest and apparently bitter contest for the control of the government are the same in their organization, in their constituents and in their theories of government as at the beginning The Republican party justified by success, has had occasion to make no new change in its policy, except such as was required by the progress of events The Democratic party scouts the idea of giving up its organization, or abandoning its fundamental principle of State rights as opposed to the national authority, now fixed by the amendments to the Constitution, and exercised under laws passed in pursuance of them The nomination of Mr Greeley was brought about, not because he was a Republican, but because he was the only Republican of sufficient prominence to be a candidate who could be bamboozled by the prospect of an election, and treated to pay the price his masters would exact for it Mr Sumner knows perfectly well that on the part of the Democratic managers who secured this result there was no higher or better motive He has not lived in the blaze of a fiery agitation for a quarter of a century to be deceived now by a pretence of sudden conversion And yet, to justify a course he had long ago determined on, he does not hesitate to hold up for the admiration of his ' colored wards" the Democratic party, their traditional enemy—hostile no longer but transformed and illuminated by a sublime purpose to rescue them from the dangers of Republican control

If this is delusion, it is delusion of a strange character, and can only be explained by the fact that since the Senate began to brood over his imaginary wrongs he has kept himself aloof from those who were bound to him by common sympathies and by a common share in the political vicissitudes of the times, and has nursed his griefs in comparative solitude, welcoming those who were willing to flatter his morbid sensibilities and burn incense to his great talents and services, but cold and unlovely to the rest who did not share his sentiments and had no respect for the extravagant injustice into which they often provoked him A June morning or evening walk from the Coolidge House across Craigie's bridge, or a sail in the harbor, doubling the outer light, with the wind blowing fresh from the sea, would have gone far to scatter the vapors which have played such m[illegible] with his judgment, and made him see things which are not

A Terrible Indictment.

The disclosures of the complicity of Democratic leaders with the rebellion, which have been made by the publication of the rebel archives, are being used with tremendous effect against Buckalew in Pennsylvania and Hendricks in Indiana While General Hartranft, now the Republican candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, was fighting for his country and spilling his blood for it, Charles R. Buckalew, the present Democratic candidate, was holding intercourse with rebel agents in Canada and conspiring with [illegible] to stir up sedition and civil war in the North' The proof of this is indisputable it is furnished by correspondence of the rebel agents with their own Government, and exists a Washington in the original handwriting On this subject the Pittsburg Commercial says

When our country was in its greatest strait a band of the most able and unscrupulous rebels took refuge in Canada, for the better prosecution of their plans for burning Northern cities and inciting the worst classes in the North to riot and revolt They were abundantly supplied with money and the bloody New York riots and the repeated attempts to burn that city and other outrages were the results of their plots. While prosecuting their labors they were visited by certain Democratic leaders who were in sympathy with Jeff Davis and, were by all the means in their power assisting him Among them was Charles R Buckalew as we now first learn from the official report of the rebel Holcombe, made at the time Can it be doubted that he visited these rebel conspirators because their cause was his cause? To this Holcombe himself testifies for he refers to these visits and this description of aid and comfort as affording the best assurance of the ultimate success of the rebellion In this and other ways Buckalew has done everything in his power to render that success sure and speedy This is no idle talk—no mere campaign invention It is a fact, now as well settled as that Lee defended Richmond Buckalew does not deny that his sympathies and his efforts—so far as he dared to act—were on the rebel side He dare not deny his visit to the rebels in Canada nor will he pretend that Holcombe told not the truth when he reported to Benjamin that it was through the sympathy and co-operation of such men as Buckalew that the rebellion would succeed if it succeeded at all Buckalew at that time as all through the war was a helper of the rebellion He not only conferred with the rebel agents in Canada but was the friend of deserters who in large numbers made his country their place of refuge and there defied the law—he was [illegible] hat [illegible] pp rhen [illegible] of the w r [illegible] ort coul l be [illegible] the Democr [illegible] Pennsylvania [illegible] or [illegible] during th [illegible] citizens of his S [illegible] would [illegible] the surrender or an [illegible] enemy [illegible] always to be preferred to an enemy in disguise

Had Buckalew made open profession of h [illegible] principles gone South and fought for them and failing returned he would n [illegible] have a better title to the support of his State than that which the course he did pursue gives him

This is not an outlawed question The period of Buckalew s offense—any crime is not so remote as to exempt him from condemnation much less as to entitle him to the reward of good conduct We yet display our riddled battle flags decorate the graves of the fallen and still mourn the loss of fathers and sons we pay $30 000 000 annually in pensions we do all this and maintain honor as a patriotic religious duty and the question comes home to Pennsylvania voters With the same hand and same breath shall we reward with the highest honor the man who during all the dreadful struggle stood among us covertly assisting the other side? Shall we prefer him to one who fought nobly from the opening clear through the war to the end

A Trib ne correspondent writing from North Carolina says that when colored men were asked to vote the Greeley ticket they would invariably reply that Grant had broken up the Ku Klux, and they would stand by him The argument seems sound enough

The Iron market at the East as latest mail advices show, is in a state of unusual excitement, growing out of the great advance of Iron in English markets Cable advices quote Iron in England at higher prices than ever known during the past fifty years Within a year Scotch Pig has advanced fully 100 per cent. the last mail quotations being 160s per ton It is extremely fortunate for this country that its Iron industry has been so well developed during the last ten years, under the operation of a protective tariff Were we now dependent on England for our supply of Iron prices here would go up fabulously At Pittsburgh at latest mail dates Pig Iron was quotable at $50@54 a ton currency Bar Iron in sympathy with Pig had an upward tendency as well as Nails and all forms of manufactured Iron

The Treasury Department decides that all articles made of cotton or which cotton is the chief value whether designated in previous acts or not were entitled to entry under the new tariff at ten per cent reduction The same rule is to apply likewise to manufactures of wool iron and steel except as otherwise provided for by the act

There are immense stocks of Wheat Bags in San Francisco and on the way to that market and sales are now being made much below the cost of the goods The price now is 15½c for standard Bags which is below the figure at which they can be laid down in the San Francisco market

The following from the circular of James Hartley & Co of the Pacific Wool Depot of San Francisco, tells the whole history of the Wool business of this season

When the spring clip commenced to come forward contrary to our expectations prices opened at 45@47½c and immediately advanced to 50@52½c for free Northern but very little changed hands at those prices Eastern buyers declined to take hold at anything over 45c for choicest kinds and holders would not meet their views under the impression that California Wools were much needed by the manufacturers and that buyers would be forced to take hold Experience has shown them the fallacy of their calculations So it continued to accumulate and by the first week of May 1 000 bags were in store in this city unsold The news of a decline at the April May London sales (as we had predicted) gave the first serious check to the views of the holders of Wool on this coast and they then offered their Wools at a decline of 5@7½c About this time a sale of 350 bags good to choice was made at 40@42½c This decline was not sufficient to induce Eastern buyers to take hold to any extent and most of them returned East without buying The local speculators who held most of the clip seeing this commenced to ship to the Eastern markets on consignment By the end of May the unsold stock of Wools in store here reached 28 000 bags Prices kept declining until the latter part of June We were enabled to fill some small orders at 34½@35c for free choice Northern Other orders were filled at 30c for free Southern fair condition Fully three-fourths of the Wool gone forward to the Eastern markets has been on consignment. There is yet in store 3 000 000 lbs mostly defective Wools The few free Wools now on the market are held at 37½c for choice 2[illegible]@35c average condition 30c short staple; slightly burry 25@30c, according to condition burry 25c; heavy and burry 20c The clip will be equal in weight to the spring clip of 1871 The fall clip will commence to be sheared during the early part of next month and will be coming into market the latter part of the month There will be considerable lambs wool and as the feed has been good it is expected to be of good length and condition The opening prices are likely to be. Northern 18@20c Southern 12@15c Oregon wools are coming forward freely Some are in excellent condition The owners prefer shipping to offering them on this market

A report from San Francisco gives the following statement regarding the market for Bacon in that city

There is less animation in the meat market than during June and July Arrivals are less important A sale of 40,000 lbs Ames Hams to arrive is reported at 15½c 40 000 lbs do at 16 [illegible]0 000 lbs other brands Eastern canvased covers at 16½@17c but now held at 1[illegible]@1[illegible]½ with a firm market Butter is again coming forward overland in quantities, and so are Hams for that matter but at the late advance in the price of Hams dealers prefer to [illegible] rather than run the risk of any further improvements in price. Bacon continues dull and neglected (the supply comparatively large) Our market does not yet respond to the advance in Chicago Cincinnati or St. Louis, [illegible] Hams and Lard—there is now no life to the market on this Coast the trade were well supplied with stock before the rise, and they are inclined to realize. Overland receipts continue to a moderate extent

7 The annual revenue after paying current expenditures should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the [illegible] [illegible] may be derived from a tax [illegible] and liquors [illegible] [illegible] securing remunerative wages to labor and to promote [illegible] the whole country

8 [illegible] the Union [illegible]

9 The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance [illegible] a subject always a subject [illegible] the Republican party [illegible] having been accepted by European nations it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Governments and we [illegible] continued and careful encouragement and protection of voluntary emigration

10 The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way prepared for a reduction in the rates of postage

11 Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital and for labor which creates capital the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization

12 We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13 We denounce the repudiation of public debts in any form or disguise as a national crime We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment

14 The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration

15 We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land

16 The Republican party propose to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territories [illegible] It disapproves of the resort to [illegible] at laws for the purpose of removing [illegible] [illegible] the State or National Government

17 It is the duty of the [illegible] such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship-building

18 We believe that the modest patriotism the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U S Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people and with him at our head we start to lay out a new march to victory
